Dear Western Union Customer,

We are contacting you to inform you that our security department identified some unusual activity for your online account. In accordance with our Terms of Agreement and to ensure that your account has not been accessed from fraudulent locations, access to your account has been limited.

Please click here to verify your account as soon as possible.

We take your online safety seriously, which is why we use state of the art notification systems to identify unusual activity and a challenge process to validate your details.

Thank you for your support.
